THE HERALD

Theme: "Going to Thrive in 2025".

The theme of our Homecoming Celebration this year is: "More and More Like Jesus". The thought comes from 2 Corinthians, chapter 3, verses 3 and 18.

In this letter to the Corinthian church, Paul uses two metaphors to describe how disciples of Christ were meant to represent Christ. They were to be living epistles read of all men, and mirrored reflections of His radiance and glory.

In the first analogy he describes them as epistles of Christ.

2 Corinthians 3:3 (NKJV)

³clearly you are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God,

The Corinthians became living letters (epistles) as the result of two things: The preaching and teaching of the word of God and the work of the Holy Spirit in their hearts. He and others had led them to faith in Christ, to repentance and baptism, but it was the Holy Spirit within them who was rewriting the script of who they had become in Christ.

Christians need to heed the words of the apostle when he writes: "Quench not the Spirit" (Eph 4:30) and "Grieve not the Spirit" (1Thess 5:19) as each of these actions serve to hinder or impede His work.

Paul says, ye are letters written, not with ink but by the Spirit of the Living God... not on tablets of stone but on tablets of flesh, that is, of the heart...

When he says you are "epistles ministered by us", Paul is boasting a bit. It is not something that he was in the habit of doing. It is something that he always felt a little foolish doing, but there is nothing that brings more delight to the heart of a faithful minister than to see the people he has bestowed so much love and labor upon exhibiting the characteristics of Christ.

Notice how he expressed those sentiments to the church of Christ in Thessalonica:

For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? (1 Thessalonians 2:19 KJV)
(Note: The Greek word translated "rejoicing" in this passage is also translated boast or boasting, 6 other times in the New Testament)

Paul says something similar in his second letter to this church:

...So that we ourselves glory [boast] in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure: (2 Thessalonians 1:4 KJV)

We should all ask ourselves, "What kind of letter am I, and what kind of message am I sending?" Am I a message to the world that the Holy Spirit is at work in my heart, producing faith and patience! Or am I a message of skepticism and doubt. What message are people receiving when they observe my actions and attitude? Am I sending the message that I am a victim or someone who is victorious? In other words, am I a letter of recommendation or repudiation? Am I an argument for or against Christ and His church.

Paul reveals what kind of letter we ought to be. We are designed to be letters of Christ; letters about Him and from Him to a world that desperately needs to hear good news. Not only do they need to hear about Him from us, but they need to "see" Him reflected in us, that is, in the lives of those who follow Him and imitate Him.

So, Paul uses another metaphor to show how believers are to be mirrors of His magnificence. It is found in verse 18.

So, all of us who have had that veil removed can see and reflect the glory of the Lord. And the Lord--who is the Spirit--makes us more and more like him as we are changed into his glorious image. (2 Cor. 3:18 -NLT)

In our quest to become fully formed disciples of Christ, and to make disciples who make disciples, we must be committed to being followers of Christ, who are being changed by Him, and who are committed to the mission that He came to champion and carry out. This is how we intend to "Go and Thrive, in 2025."

We have invited a lineup of anointed men of God to assist us in the process. They are brothers, Kelvin Teamer, Anthony Walker, (Murfreesboro, TN), Christopher Jackson (Nashville, TN), David Wilson (Brooklyn, N.Y.) and Corey Glover (Hallandale Beach FL).

Mark your calendar and make plans to be here each evening and on Sunday so you don't miss any of the great messages these men will bring. Make sure you invite your friends and family as well.

Evangelist LeRoy Butler, Jr.—Minister ■
